#DynatraceLife

Real vibes. Real people.

Dynatracers have a unified goal of making sure software works perfectly in the world around us. We foster a work environment built on innovation, agility, and collaboration. Ours is a culture that takes pride in enabling individuals to pursue big ideas, while recognizing the power of maintaining a healthy work-life balance.

Dynatrace Work Model

Our ways of work support in-person connection, cultural vibrancy, and hyper-innovation. Recognizing every team's and individual's unique needs, we offer flexibility with on-site collaboration and remote work options. The FLEX model requires two office days weekly, while the REMOTE model suits Dynatracers living further away from the office.

Wellness Days: We offer quarterly company-designated paid days off for our teams to unwind and relax. Check out #dynatracewellness and see how Dynatracers have enjoyed recent Wellness Days.

Inclusion in the workplace

People are our most valued asset and fuel our success. We foster an inclusive culture that supports their growth, attracting, retaining, and promoting exceptional talent. Embracing diversity sparks innovation, fostering collaboration and leading-edge technology development. Diversity, equity and inclusion are critical to our mission of providing software intelligence to simplify the complexities of the modern cloud and accelerate digital transformation.

We launched a team dedicated to this mission, including setting hiring goals to increase diversity and representation of all backgrounds and identities across Dynatrace, providing anti-racism trainings, and more. Also, we continue to establish active new employee resource groups to support unique interests and initiatives throughout the organization.

Dynatracers around the world

The personalities, expertise, and backgrounds of our global team are as diverse as the countries we work in. These varying perspectives—and the people behind them—provide unique and invaluable talent that we are proud to have. Although we are living across states, countries, and continents, we work as one team every day. Through teamwork, we create innovations that support our customers around the globe.
